In a little church by a village green

C G7 C
I vowed my life away,

C F
followed by a little gathering

G7 C
for those who wished to stay.

C
Everyone who came brought us
F C G7 C
something good to fill our happy home.

C F
But a certain something caught my eye –
G7 C Am D7- D7- G7
it stood out on its own. On its own...

Aunty Alice brought us this –
F C
Aunty Alice brought us this,

Not too late - not too soon –

press it in the middle it'll play a tune.

but Aunty Alice brought us this.

C F
When the Vicar stood up for his speech
C G7 C
there was not one eye on him.

C F
Everybody waiting anxiously G7 C
for Aunty to come in,

C F
 and my pretty wife - she was full of strife –
 C G7 C
 she said it wasn't fair
 C F
 that our wedding-day was runner-up
 G7 C Am D7-D7-G7
 to that thing over there, Over there...

 Auntie Alice brought us this –
 F C

 When we left the Church for our Honeymoon
 C G7 C
 to an island far away,
 C F
 everything was good - and we felt we could G7 C
 have stayed and stayed and stayed,
 C F
 swimming in the sea - lying in the sand
 C G7 C
 or lazing in the sun.
 C F
 But when the evening came there were better
 G7 C Am D7-D7-G7
 ways of joining in the fun. In the fun...
