

NZ22 Tea at Te Kuiti

Ken Avery (Sung in a bad. NZ accent)

INTRO D, G, C (over last line of verse)

VERSE 1 C

I'm havin' tea at Te Kuiti with my sweetie

G7

and then a row at Rotorua on the waves.

D7

C

Do a tour of Turangi, when the Maori have a hangi

D

G7

then I'll wind up in the old Waitomo caves.

C

I'm go'ng'ta tread the narrow path at Ngar'awahia

C7

F

and dash to Dannevirke before the beer is cut.

I'm going to town at Taum'runui, wander down the Whanganui then I'm go'ng'ta live it up at Upper Hutt.

D

G

C

VERSE 2 C

I'm go'ng'ta travel in by car to Invercarill,

G7

I'm go'ng'ta meet a man at Manapouri Lake.

D7

C

Though I'm not the one to boast,

C

I've been toasted on the Coast

D

G7

and washed ashore at Taylor's big Mistake.

C

I've eaten oysters in the stew at Stewart Island

C7

F

and met a mutton-birder down at Foveaux Strait (breathe)

C

I've tried to bluff them at the Bluff,

C

each time I said I'd had enough

D

G

C

they put another dozen oysters on me plate.

VERSE 3 C

I'm go'ng'ta canter on the plains at Canterbury,

G7

I'm go'ng'ta rue the day I leave ol' Oamaru,

D7

C

I'll spend the winter on the inter-island ferry, makin' merry

D

G7

an' wait for North and South to come in view.

C

Now you c'n see a lot that's new in ol' New Zealand.

C7

F

You c'n keep your Port of Spain an' Mexico. (breathe)

F

C

But if you plan to go away, down A-o-tee-a-ro-a way

D

G

C

A Kiwi always tells you where to go - Look out for Trenthan

D

G

C

A Kiwi always tells you where to go - and Karamea

D

G

C

A Kiwi always tells you where to go - Mokihinui

D

G

C

A Kiwi always tells you where to go!